Dear Family and Friends,

As you know, Super Tuesday is right around the corner and I would be remiss if I didn't take this opportunity to not only remind you to vote, but to let you know who I am supporting in this election (in case you hadn't already heard). Back in the early summer, both Scott and I made our choice to support Mike Huckabee for the Republican nomination on the Presidential ticket. And I want to take a moment and tell you our reasoning behind our decision. When we first heard Mike speak, he was the "no name" in the race. When I told people who I was going to vote for, their response was "who?". But that didn't matter to us. We didn't decide which candidate to support based on who "can beat" Obama or Clinton. We went with our convictions. For at the end of the day, I refuse to cast my ballot solely on the basis of who I think will win. We are called as Christians to vote for that person that aligns with our beliefs. Now, don't get me wrong. They have to be qualified. They have to have a good track record. They have to know what they are doing. But their character, their love for our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, weighs heavily in our decision making process.

So, here are a few things you need to know about Huckabee. You of course can visit his website at www.mikehucakabee.com, however if you don't have the time to do that, I wanted to make sure you are knowledgeable on his platform and stance on pertinent issues.

- Huckabee is the candidate with the most executive political experience, having been Governor of Arkansas for 10 1/2 years.
- He is a true fiscal conservative. Having been left with a $200,000,000 deficit in Arkansas' budget, he turned it around to a $850,000,000 surplus at the end of his term.
- He is a strong supporter of the Fair Tax.
- He supports Americans For Tax Relief. He has also signed a "no-new taxes" pledge.

- He is the ONLY candidate endorsed by the Georgia Right to Life PAC (political action committee). In fact, he spent his political capital fighting for the sanctity of life.

- 2nd Amendment ~ He is the highest rated candidate with the NRA, is a lifelong hunter and a true defender of this Amendment.

- He is the first of ALL candidates in this election to sign the :No Amnesty" Pledge. Please see below for a press release on this important issue:

On January 16th, Governor Mike Huckabee became the first presidential candidate to sign Americans for Better Immigration's "No-Amnesty" Pledge.
Roy Beck, President of Americans for Better Immigration had this to say regarding Governor Huckabee's Pledge: "Every candidate claims to oppose amnesty, but few define amnesty the way most Americans do. I applaud Gov. Huckabee for defining amnesty correctly, and for pledging to fully enforce laws that would take away the jobs and benefits magnets that draw illegal aliens here - and that keep them here. "What a contrast to Sen. McCain, Sen. Clinton and Sen. Obama, for example, who say they reject amnesty and then, in almost the same breath, say that most illegal aliens will have to be allowed to stay permanently. All three have repeatedly voted for amnesty. In the past week, Sen. McCain and Mayor Giuliani have clarified on national TV that they intend for most illegal aliens to be granted the very things they broke immigration laws to steal: an American job and U.S. residency". Governor Huckabee understands his pledge to mean that:

1. The 12 million illegal aliens now here will have to go home.
2. They will not get any legal status while here that allows them to remain long-term.
3. Once in their home countries, they may apply for re-admittance to the U.S. as immigrants, visitors or temporary workers through normal channels. However, they will not receive any special privileges on the basis of their having been in the U.S. illegally, such as being put to the front of a line.
4. There will be no new categories or programs through which they may re-enter.
5. There will not be an expansion of green cards in any existing categories that will speed up their movement to the front of the line.

Some additional tidbits about Mike:

- Mike spent a significant part of his adult life as a pastor.

- He became the youngest president ever of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention.

- Author of five books, including "Quit Digging Your Grave With a Knife and Fork" about his battle with obesity and how he managed to lose 105 pounds through diet and exercise.

- Married to Janet and has three children.

Now, some of you might be wondering how Huckabee stands up to the other candidates in the race. Since that is an important question and one you need to be knowledgeable in, I have researched each candidate's platform and how they agree and disagree on issues. Please see below:

ABORTION

Huckabee:
Huckabee supports a constitutional amendment to protect life from the time of conception. He praised the Supreme Court ruling upholding a ban on partial birth abortion. The governor also opposes embryonic stem cell funding, saying it amounts to creating a life only then to take it away.

McCain:
McCain believes Roe vs.. Wade should be overturned, and that the abortion question should be left to the individual states to legislate.

Romney:
Romney says Roe vs.. Wade should be overturned. He believes decisions on abortion are best left to the states and that "a single federal rule" is wrong. In the past, he broadly supported abortion rights and Roe vs. Wade. He has since changed his position regarding the role of government in such matters.

ENERGY/ENVIRONMENT

Huckabee:
Huckabee wants to conserve and use alternative energy like nuclear, wind, solar, hydrogen, clean coal, bio-diesel, and biomass. He plans to set aside a federal research and development budget that will be matched by the private sector to research alternative fuels. He says energy independence will make the U.S. safer. He supports offshore drilling and oil exploration in Alaska's Arctic National Wildlife Refuge.

McCain:
McCain wants to see more investment in alternative-energy sources such as nuclear power, ethanol, fuel cells, bio-diesel, and natural gas. He believes ethanol will play a big part in energy independence.McCain is the chief co-sponsor of a bill that sets mandatory caps on greenhouse emissions. His plan would allow companies to trade excess carbon emission capacity, and would require emissions to return to 2004 levels by 2012 and to 1990 levels by 2020.

Romney:
Romney proposes using a combination of conservation and efficiency measures to make the U.S. energy independent. He supports greater public investment in the development of alternative sources of energy like bio-diesel, ethanol, nuclear and coal gasification. He supports drilling for oil in Alaska's Arctic National Wildlife Refuge and on the Outer Continental Shelf. He opposes carbon taxes.

IMMIGRATION

Huckabee:
Huckabee became the first presidential candidate to sign Americans for Better Immigration's "No-Amnesty" Pledge (see above for details). He wants to secure and police the border and supports erecting an electric or physical barrier along the U.S.-Mexico border.

McCain:
He wants to develop a guest worker program that allows illegal immigrants to earn legitimate status. McCain sponsored the 2006 comprehensive immigration reform bill. Had it passed, it would have allowed some illegal immigrants already in the U.S. to work and apply to become legal residents after learning English, paying fines and back taxes, and clearing a background check. McCain wants a comprehensive immigration reform bill that would improve border surveillance and enforcement, strengthen penalties against those who hire illegal immigrants, and stop document fraud.

PRA_GSP01_0011297

Romney:
Romney opposed the McCain-Kennedy immigration bill of 2006, saying it would have opened a door to a vast number of immigrants and allow "amnesty" for illegals. Romney says the U.S. must become more attractive for legal immigrants, and champions greater use of H1B visas to bring in skilled workers. He promotes harsher penalties for employers who knowingly hire illegal immigrants and wants to create an employment verification system that uses high-tech identification cards. He supports building a fence on the U.S.-Mexico border.

IRAQ

Huckabee:
Huckabee supported Bush's troop surge in Iraq. He believes that going into Iraq with too few troops was a mistake, and opposes Democratic efforts to set a deadline for withdrawal. Huckabee says the U.S. must finish the job now or go back and do it all over again someday. He proposes a Middle East summit so that Iraq's neighbors become militarily and financially committed to stabilizing their neighborhood.

McCain:
McCain thinks Bush's strategy in Iraq can succeed, and that if the U.S. fails to stabilize Iraq now, the threat of terrorism against American interests will grow. McCain has strongly criticized Democrats who support a troop withdrawal timeline, but has also criticized the administration for mishandling the war.

Romney:
Romney has criticized the Bush administration for committing errors in Iraq, but supports the current troop surge strategy. He opposes an early withdrawal from Iraq, and has described Democratic attempts to set a deadline for withdrawal as "setting a date for surrender." He believes a quick withdrawal from Iraq, before the country has been stabilized, could trigger a larger regional conflict.

TAXES

Huckabee:
Huckabee is a strong supporter of the Fair Tax. He supported the Bush tax cuts and would make them permanent. Huckabee would also reduce the tax burden of those with the lowest incomes. He regrets that Republicans have all too often perceived as favoring the wealthy with their tax policies. He signed a no-new taxes pledge in March of 2007.

McCain:
McCain says tax cuts work best in conjunction with lower spending. He blames excessive spending for Republican losses in the 2006 elections. McCain was one of two Republican senators to oppose the 2001 tax cuts, arguing that too many of the benefits went to the most fortunate at the expense of the middle class. He also opposed the 2003 tax cuts. McCain says he would not raise taxes, but that he would not go as far as to sign a pledge to that effect. He believes a repeal of the estate tax isn't necessary.

Romney:
Romney believes the Bush tax cuts should be made permanent, and that even more tax cuts should be offered. He also says he will fight to abolish the estate tax. Romney backs a savings incentive plan that would allow Americans to earn interest, dividends, and capital gains tax-free. He would also lower the corporate tax rate. Romney signed the 2008 presidential candidate "Taxpayer Protection Pledge," even though he has been critical of similar no-tax pledges in the past.

ECONOMY

Huckabee:
Huckabee supports tax rebates and curbing federal spending, to include adopting the line-item veto. He is also in favor the FairTax and the elimination of the IRS, which he says will increase both the likelihood that American companies will invest domestically and that foreign companies will invest in America.

McCain:
McCain proposes to cut the corporate tax rate from 35% to 25%, which in his opinion is essential to the United States competitiveness and would expand the economy and lead to higher wages. He proposes to allow the First Year Deduction of Equipment and Technological Investments and wants to establish a permanent tax credit equal to 10% of wages spent on Research and Development.

Romney:
Romney proposes simplifying regulations and bureaucratic processes for businesses in addition to tort reform, saying that both issues keep businesses from seeking out and retaining employees. He wants to curb federal spending by establishing a spending limit and by instituting the line-item veto to cut out unnecessary expenditures. Romney says to avoid a pending budget crisis, the federal government must trim down entitlement spending.

HOMELAND SECURITY

Huckabee:
Huckabee plans to remove FEMA from the Department of Homeland Security and give the organization cabinet status, so that the FEMA director will report directly to the president. He plans to streamline the Department of Homeland Security, to make it more efficient and effective. He wants to increase chemical plan and port security standards at the federal level, but give states the right to make and enforce stricter-than-federal port standards.

McCain:
McCain plans to strengthen the military, shore up alliances and continue to protect our homeland in any crisis that comes our way.

Romney:
Romney wants to clarify and streamline relationships with domestic security-related operations to enable clearer communication and more decisive action. He wants to increase the size of the U.S. army by 100,000 troops. Romney wants to shift the focus of homeland security from response to prevention. He says effective prevention means that stronger international alliances and integration of federal actions with global and local efforts.

EDUCATION

Huckabee:
Huckabee favors strong support of arts and music education as a part of normal, traditional curriculum, saying that these aspects of education contribute to a future generation of creative workers, enabling America to compete more rigorously in a global economy. He supports home schooling, charter schools, and school choice programs. Huckabee wants to curb federal intervention in state school programs; with regard to NCLB (No Child Left Behind), allowing states to develop their own benchmarks for measuring success.

McCain:
McCain proposes to pursue reforms addressing underlying cultural problems in our educational system.

Romney:
Romney is in favor of charter schools and school choice programs. He wants to put more of an emphasis on math and science education. He is proposing a federal home schooling tax credit to help reduce education-related expenses of parents who home school. He supports Bush's NCLB (No Child Left Behind) and wants to offer schools with good testing track records more leeway in evaluating student performance.

HEALTH CARE

Huckabee:
Huckabee wants to completely overhaul the health care system, but opposes universal federal healthcare. He wants to adopt policies that encourage innovation in the private sector to bring down costs and subsequently improve free market access to healthcare. He wants to decrease medical liability, make health insurance deductible for individuals, and make health insurance more easily portable from job to job.

McCain:
McCain proposes bringing costs under control and allowing individuals to control their health care costs and care and providing access to all citizens. In order to do this, he proposes to completely reform the nature of the current system. Examples include: competition between providers, states given the flexibility with Medicare costs, development of safe routes for cheaper generic versions of prescriptions. He also proposes to pass tort reform to eliminate frivolous lawsuits. He would also reform the tax code to provide an increase of $2,500 tax credit as an incentive for insurance coverage.

Romney:
Romney wants to make all health care expenses tax deductible and divert some funds from emergency rooms treating uninsured patients to programs that would help needy uninsured patients to buy private insurance. He also favors malpractice tort reform. Romney supports giving states leeway as to how they spend their Medicaid funds.

As you can see, there are some similarities with the candidates and some who have flip-flopped on important issues. I hope this has helped in your making a decision as to who to support in the Presidential race.

Huckabee Yard Signs ~ If you would like one (it's not too late to put one out), I've got some. Just let me know and we can figure out how to get it to you.

E-Mail Lists ~ If you find this e-mail helpful, please forward it to your family and friends. In addition, if you want to receive updates from Huckabee's campaign, just visit his website a www.mikehuckabee.com and click on Georgians for Huckabee to sign up for the e-mails.

In closing, there is one more thing I want you to know. I don't send these e-mails to fill up your Inbox. I promise you as a mother of two little ones, I can easily fill three hours doing something else than researching and sending you these facts. In fact, there is a sink full of dirty dishes and a pile of dirty laundry, just calling out my name. :) The reason I do this is because I am passionate about this. Not politics. Don't get me wrong. There are things I enjoy about politics. And there are things I hate. What I am passionate about is when someone stands out above the rest because of his character, his humbleness, his experience and his love for our Lord. And in finding that person, I feel it is my responsibility to let others know about him. Many are wondering why I have even taken the time to send this, since Huckabee is third in the polls. God is bigger than poll numbers. And if He wants Huckabee to win, then he will. If He doesn't, then he won't. But that doesn't and shouldn't stop us for being obedient and making our voices heard at the polls on Tuesday.

And if you have actually gotten to the end of this e-mail - thank you for taking time to read it. I know it was lengthy, but hopefully worth it. As always, please don't hesitate to contact me if you have any questions.

Blessings,

Lori

MESSAGE:

Dear Governor Palin,

I just wanted to take a few minutes to thank you for taking the time out of your busy schedule and life to drive down to Seward today to join us in celebrating the Centennial of the Iditarod. We are all very touched and inspired by your efforts on our behalf. I hope your drive back was as easy as the drive down.

I would also like to recap our conversation if I may. I am indeed working very hard amongst the conservation community to focus on common ground and promoting projects rather than always seeming to oppose projects. As you can imagine it is an uphill battle but I can definitely see progress being made. With my leadership positions in the conservation community I hope to bring more leaders from around our great state to more moderate stances.

I will continue promoting utilizing the railbelt ROW and ARCC for potential wind generation siting as you suggested. I will continue the dialogue with your cabinet and hope you will promote it from above as well. It would be so nice to see our own public corp, ARRC promoting renewable energies rather than strictly coal.

We also spoke of the President of Iceland's vision and how it inspired us both. After you raised the question and contemplating it for a while I believe it was the high cost of fuel which swung the public and political climate in Iceland to support their renewable energy development. So perhaps with our ever rising fuel costs these projects will become viable and receive broader support as time passes. Every time fuel costs go up I figure alternatives are coming down. So it seems we are on the right track, its just a matter of time. I really appreciate all of your efforts towards promoting renewable projects statewide. Please know I am at your service if you should ever have any suggestions.

We also spoke of the shipyard and the need to tighten up regulations to prevent shipyard pollution. Ketchikan, Sitka, and now Seward's shipyards have all been declared contaminated sites. This is directly due to lack of containment which is allowed by loose regulations such as the "reasonable precautions" language in the fugitive dust regs. Prevention is key and it is obvious we will be developing new ports and marine facilities in the future. We must learn from our mistakes. All of the other coastal states have gone through this same transition after winding up with contaminated shipyards. So we have great models to follow. I will continue working with Joe and Larry on this effort.

Tributyltin, the element of concern detected in all of the shipyard samples is, as I mentioned, now banned globally, and has been banned in Alaska for 8 years, yet is still appearing everywhere we look. As I also mentioned I believe the Alaska Marine Highway Ferries and USCG vessels may still utilize this most toxic substance. Without total containment of waste generating activities the contamination can only get worse in time. And without even a lab in Alaska capable of analyzing samples for TBT we have a real challenge before us. UAF and the Sealife Center just started a study of TBT in mussels from a number of locations around the state including near our shipyard's long term beach dumpsite for their waste. I am in this for the long term and will continue doing whatever I can to raise awareness of these issues.

My grandson, Hunter was so proud of your attention. He was even shown driving a sled on the news tonight! He is such a serious young man. I am really proud of him. His science teacher invited me to speak to the class about conservation issues. As you are, I am dedicated to making this world a better place for our future generations. The most compelling moment in my life was when Chief Joe Linklater of the Gwich'in in Old Crow, YT spoke addressed Congress last year and said, "this land is for those not yet born", then he paused for at least 2 minutes before continuing his testimony. There wasn't a dry eye in the chamber.

Again, thank you so much for coming today. And please if there is ever anything you can think of that I might do for the benefit of the state just call me. I stand ready to serve.

Thanks for all of your efforts on behalf of our great state, and all of us lucky enough to call it home.

Respectfully,

Mike- pls add to tomorrow's Cabinet agenda: update from Rhonda on rural issues she's encountering w/her job (pls let her know we'll request this update - if she's in Anchorage it'll be via conf-ing in), and Mindy w/an update on legislation in the hopper and what she's hearing from leggies on any of our initiatives. Any head's up she can give commissioners re: leggies activities we need to know about. Thanks

Also, I'm inviting whomever wants to come over to Gov's House tomorrow evening to watch Super Tuesday results be broadcast. We have a tv downstairs and food. I'll ask Mindy to let leggies know they're welcome to come over (Ivy's doing the same), and I want our staff to know they're invited too... Remind me to let them know at Cabinet mtg - but also let them know today via email (I'll cc Janice so she can invite them). There's food over there. It'll be good.

Governor:

I have two presentations for the Cabinet meeting tomorrow:

1) It will take at least 60 days for SU to conduct a strike vote. We won't know if they intend to do that until after the arbitrator's decision (on the Class One employees who cannot strike) later today. Privileged or Personal Material Redacted
Privileged or Personal Material Reda Privileged or Personal Material Redacted Privileged or At the Cabinet meeting, I'll be passing out the strike plans last done in 1996 and asking Commissioners to update them, first with SU in mind, and second - they need to be refreshed as a whole anyway. I'll have the lists of SU employees by department for each Commissioner, and a list of SU members by community location (trying to anticipate how Commissioners will want to see information).

We will have the arbitrator's decision on Class One employees and I'll be sharing highlights from that. I may not talk strategy in front of the whole Cabinet if you have not been briefed privately prior to the Cabinet meeting.

2) The second presentation is the roll out of the AO 237 Working Group report to the Cabinet. I'll have binders for each Cabinet member, one for the Press Office, for Anna Kim-Special Assistant with DOA responsibilities; and, of course for you and Mike. I'll be doing a private briefing with union management after the Cabinet meeting and then it will go up on the web with a media release.

Governor Palin, I reside in St. Louis, Missouri but I subscribe to Alaska Magazine. Very nice article (Jan 08). We have a republican Governor (Blunt-R) who has made many tough decisions and did an incredible job (in my opinion) getting Missouri back together again with a balanced budget, etc, etc. Your philosophy and rationale for becoming Governor is in many ways similar to his. Anyway, I have not yet been to Alaska but I would love to someday soon. I have even imagined moving there but I must get the older boys into college first (3 years). I have spent the last 20 years of my career in the Environmental Compliance industry and I am currently the Director of Sustainable Development for a chemical company here in St. Louis.

Did you know that the average annual temperature in Fairbanks, AK is not too different from that in St. Louis?

Having written/given many presentations of my own, I am wondering what you are looking for in a speech writer? Must you live locally?

Anyway - nice article. Good luck.

May I respectfully ask that you give great consideration to endorsing Gov. Mike Huckabee for the Republican nominee for President.

After 10 1/2 years as Governor of Arkansas, Gov. Huckabee has a proven record or working hard for his people. He lowered taxes, rebuilt the state's infrastructure, tackled education and moved Arkansas from 49th lowest performance in the nation to 9th in the nation. He has bold new ideas, and contageous hope for the future of this country. I believe he has the core beliefs to lead the way on getting a handle on health care costs, sealing our borders and working for a common sense solution to the millions of illegals in this country.

Your time is valuable. I thank you for it, and I thank you for considering an endorsement for Gov. Mike Huckabee. I sincerely believe he is the only person who can hold the white house for the Republicans and maybe restore the Republican majorities in the House and Senate.

Dear Governor Palin,

I am a Republican college student in San Diego, CA and a strong supporter of Mike Huckabee's presidential campaign. It has come to my attention that you are considering endorsing Gov. Huckabee. I hope that you will take a brief moment to read my message.

As a conservative Republican voter, I decided to support Governor Huckabee when I first found out about him back in September 2007. I believe that he is the only remaining Republican candidate that conservative Republican voters can trust. He has consistently supported the protection of life, traditional marriage and second amendment rights. The other candidates have mixed records on these and several issues.

Gov. Huckabee also supports opening ANWR, which would reduce our dependency on foreign oil. McCain has clearly stated that we should not open ANWR.

I know that there are many Alaskans working hard for Huckabee at the grassroots level and I'm sure that they would be thrilled to have your support. There are also several of us that would love to have a Huckabee/Palin ticket this November. :)

I hope that you and Gov. Huckabee will be able to talk sometime soon. :)

Sincerely,

Grant Castro

MESSAGE:

I am writing to request your endorsement of Mike Huckabee for president.

He is a good man and has the most executive experience of any presidential candidate. His record in Arkansas as governor for 10.5 years shows a man committed to serving the people and putting their interests above his own political ambitions, making advances in conservation and infrastructue, keeping taxes low and balancing the budget, all while working with a 90% democrat legislature.

He he has the goal of energy independence within 10 years and would work toward tapping our own sources of energy to free us from Saudi oil. This would include opening up ANWR as well as building new refineries among other things.

Please support Mike Huckabee for president.

Mike,

I will have Janice Mason get in touch regarding the Governor's schedule. The first part of the week is fairly packed. It might be easier to set up a time with me and Nizich and have the Governor stop in for a few minutes, if possible. Look forward to seeing you in Juneau.

Hello Mike,

I hope the session is going well for you thus far. 90 days will be interesting.

I will be in Juneau next week for a few days and was wondering if it would be possible to get a few moments with Governor Palin to thank her for her support for Arctic Power? I would, of course, also like to discuss increasing the appropriation for FY2009 and our reasoning for the request. I met with John Katz and Larry Persily late last fall and had a very good discussion about the role of Arctic Power after the fall elections. Paula Easley will also be in town and would like to attend the meeting if we are able to get a few moments. I get into Juneau Monday morning and leave Wednesday at noon. I am available anytime that works and recognize the Governor's time is extremely valuable and limited. I also want to meet with you and Mike Nizich to discuss the issue and again recognize time and schedule limitations.

Thank you.

Best regards,

Mike Navarre

Habitat will be very low-key bc it's going to be very controversial, as interpretted by Tzach - I spoke with him this morning at explained a bit of all this - so it can be covered tomorrow, and we do need a Fish and Game official there during that explanation (Denby or Ken Taylor or anyone), along with Dick Lefbvre... But if particular people mentioned can't make it then they need subs so I'm not left explaining their evaluation results myself.

Governor-

The online checkbook unveiling has to be done on the 10th floor (Admin) - they have a presentation that needs to be routed through their technical set-up. They would like to do it tomorrow. Can we have the Habitat announcement on Wed? I am still waiting to see if Denby will be in Juneau.

Dear Governor Palin

I am asking for your support for Mike Huckabee by endorsing him for his candidacy for President. I myself support former Governor Huckabee for the same reasons I supported you in your candidancy for the Governor and as I still continue to support you. He possess the same integrity and principles that you have shown in support for prolife, marriage amendment, ANWR, fiscal conservatism, 2nd amendment and the list goes on. He is a life long and avid hunter, pilot, fisherman and you may well know a marathon runner. He truly is in my opinion the best not only to represent our Nation but our own state of Alaska as an outdoorsman. I truly trust this man with the same respect that I trust you as a person and our Governor. Thank you for you time in your busy schedule to take time to read this email.

Dear Governor Sarah Palin,

I am the organizer for the Mike Huckabee for President 2008 Meetup group in North Pole.

I started this group in order to find other members to volunteer to help gain local support for Mike Huckabee in the area knowing that his campaign has very limited funds for advertising.

I pray that you will thoughtfully consider endorsing Mike Huckabee. I believe with all my heart that he is an exceptional candidate that by far the most qualified candidate running on either side. He is honest and very intelligent and I believe would be every bit as fiscally conservative as you are.

I was born in Eagle Alaska and have lived here my entire life. I love this state and am proud to be an Alaskan. I want a president who appreciates a states right to decide what is best for it's people and not a legislator who would impose federal mandates or oppose the drilling in ANWR.

I also want a president who believes that our nation can set high standards and achieve goals such as energy independence and the Fair Tax plan that would benefit all of us but most importantly it would benefit our poorest. The other candidates continuously say that the Fair Tax is a great idea but not likely to happen. Mike Huckabee says we will make it happen. I believe that if elected he will.

I have great respect for you and believe that you truely have Alaskas best interests at heart and I think that Mike Huckabee posesses that same rare quality. Sincerely,

Rena Cook

MESSAGE:

Recent news stated that you are considering both McCain and Huckabee as your choice for President at this time. May I respectfully suggest you consider further?

Mike Huckabee's support is not just from Evangelicals as the media is trying to convince us to believe- it is from free thinking people that favor issues held dear in the hearts of most Alaskans. The Second Ammendment, the First Ammendment, and as our Alaskan Governer what should be your favorite Ammendment, the Tenth - STATES RIGHTS !!

He understands the value of ANWR to our nation as we grow towards energy independence. He also sees the benefit of our natural gas to help us reach that national goal.

Mike Huckabee's 'agenda' is to benefit YOUR KIDS, and as Governer you shoud recognize the benefit to YOUR STATE. (sounds similar to a lady that ran for Governer and won up here not too long ago!)

I implore you, before the Alaska caucuses on Tuesday, publicly endorse Mike Huckabee - so all our state knows that you care less about those IN POWER, but more about those of us lowly voters that have empowered you to speak on our behalf!

You say a Governer's endorsement means little...I think you are under-estimating the respect that most Alaskans have for you. Please endorse your fellow Governer, Mike Huckabee.

Thank you for your outstanding service to the State of Alaska,

Respectfully Submitted,

I'd like to do it tomorrow to get it out of the way. Again, not a big media splash, but a sit down with reporters who are interested so they can really grasp where we're going: con't evaluation of structure, MOU, won't fight the legislature on its efforts to study the move and decide on their pending legislation to move it back... Committment to sound oversight and publicly supported permitting process, Etc.

This media discussion can coincide with our explanation of the state's on-line checkbook that can begin tomorrow. I'll get an update on that and ask Annette to be ready for that tomorrow too. Thanks Talked to Rep Buch today. He conveyed he was upset about the BOG appointments too. I let him know that you received 3 names from AFN and 2 of those names were conflicted out. I went on to say you tried for several days to get a hold of the 3rd nominee that you were very interested in talking to, but had no luck getting a hold of him and had to go with someone else. He was appreciative of the response.

Anyway, he asked that I pass on that he would like you to touch base with Mary Nelson, Reggie Joule, and Woodie Salmon, but specifically Mary. He thinks they would appreciate hearing this response too. I've copied the governor incase she runs into any of these guys in the hall in the mean time and is caught off guard.

I thought the news coverage was good tonight. Bill did a good job conveying you and the governor don't consider candidates based on race, and that Sitka and Tok are rural.

MESSAGE:

Dear Governor Palin,

I just wanted to take a few minutes to thank you for taking the time out of your busy schedule and life to drive down to Seward today to join us in celebrating the Centennial of the Iditarod. We are all very touched and inspired by your efforts on our behalf. I hope your drive back was as easy as the drive down.

I would also like to recap our conversation if I may. I am indeed working very hard amongst the conservation community to focus on common ground and promoting projects rather than always seeming to oppose projects. As you can imagine it is an uphill battle but I can definitely see progress being made. With my leadership positions in the conservation community I hope to bring more leaders from around our great state to more moderate stances.

I will continue promoting utilizing the railbelt ROW and ARCC for potential wind generation siting as you suggested. I will continue the dialogue with your cabinet and hope you will promote it from above as well. It would be so nice to see our own public corp, ARRC promoting renewable energies rather than strictly coal.

We also spoke of the President of Iceland's vision and how it inspired us both. After you raised the question and contemplating it for a while I believe it was the high cost of fuel which swung the public and political climate in Iceland to support their renewable energy development. So perhaps with our ever rising fuel costs these projects will become viable and receive broader support as time passes. Every time fuel costs go up I figure alternatives are coming down. So it seems we are on the right track, its just a matter of time. I really appreciate all of your efforts towards promoting renewable projects statewide. Please know I am at your service if you should ever have any suggestions.

We also spoke of the shipyard and the need to tighten up regulations to prevent shipyard pollution. Ketchikan, Sitka, and now Seward's shipyards have all been declared contaminated sites. This is directly due to lack of containment which is allowed by loose regulations such as the "reasonable precautions" language in the fugitive dust regs. Prevention is key and it is obvious we will be developing new ports and marine facilities in the future. We must learn from our mistakes. All of the other coastal states have gone through this same transition after winding up with contaminated shipyards. So we have great models to follow. I will continue working with Joe and Larry on this effort.

Tributyltin, the element of concern detected in all of the shipyard samples is, as I mentioned, now banned globally, and has been banned in Alaska for 8 years, yet is still appearing everywhere we look. As I also mentioned I believe the Alaska Marine Highway Ferries and USCG vessels may still utilize this most toxic substance. Without total containment of waste generating activities the contamination can only get worse in time. And without even a lab in Alaska capable of analyzing samples for TBT we have a real challenge before us. UAF and the Sealife Center just started a study of TBT in mussels from a number of locations around the state including near our shipyard's long term beach dumpsite for their waste. I am in this for the long term and will continue doing whatever I can to raise awareness of these issues.

My grandson, Hunter was so proud of your attention. He was even shown driving a sled on the news tonight! He is such a serious young man. I am really proud of him. His science teacher invited me to speak to the class about conservation issues. As you are, I am dedicated to making this world a better place for our future generations. The most compelling moment in my life was when Chief Joe Linklater of the Gwich'in in Old Crow, YT spoke addressed Congress last year and said, "this land is for those not yet born", then he paused for at least 2 minutes before continuing his testimony. There wasn't a dry eye in the chamber.

Again, thank you so much for coming today. And please if there is ever anything you can think of that I might do for the benefit of the state just call me. I stand ready to serve.

Thanks for all of your efforts on behalf of our great state, and all of us lucky enough to call it home.

MESSAGE:

Governor Palin,

Where is the Alaskan peoples voice being represented with respect to the direction of Fish & Game?

With the latest appointments to the board it is evident that your administration has an agenda to hear only from the people that are in favor of predatory control. Your latest bill to make it more difficult for conservation groups to sue the state of Alaska indicates that you do not seem to undestand that it is not just conservation groups that are againtst prdatory control; it is the voters of Alaska who have twice voted down aerial wolf hunting.

Where is our voice with respect to Fish & Game's direction? Will your administraion not listen to the seaoned biologists who were hired as experts by the state when they speak out that there is no viable science supporting this type of spieces control? Furthermore, it is my understanding that these biologists who are employed by Fish & Game are being reprimanded for voicing their opinions on both aeril wolf hunting and the unethical hunting of Katmai bears. Is this what we call open debate? Is this transparent governing?

Many of the policies of Fish & Game for the past 2 years are taking the State of Alaska backwards.

Is there anyone listening to the voters voice?
